Returning Officers

Tom Newman

Returning Officer

Cat Turhan

Deputy Returning Officer

elections@imperial.ac.uk

Welcome

Thank you for taking part in the Autumn Elections 2022.

I'm Tom Newman, Returning Officer. That means it is my responsibility, supported by the Deputy Returning Officer, to ensure that the elections are run fairly and in line with the rules, as set out by the Union's constitution and by-laws.

Student representatives are vital to the student experience. It is crucial that the student voice is effective in ensuring the Union and College are acting in the interests of students. The positions in these elections have one thing in common: they can all make Imperial a better place to be. Imperial College Union has a rich history of strong democratic engagement with hundreds of students elected each year to take charge of the student experience. You could be a candidate for Union Council, making policy decisions that affect the entire student body; stand as an Academic Representative working to improve the learning experience; or become a Wellbeing Representative helping students access support and build communities. Perhaps you are interested in championing change - consider becoming part of a Liberation & Community Network. There are a number of positions available in our Club, Societies and Project Committees. We also have a range of positions available for Constituent Union Committees, where you can be part of the active social scene on your course or faculty.

This Candidates' Pack explains more about the positions, gives some helpful tips on campaigning and explains the all important rules. Be sure to read them - when you become a candidate, you confirm that you have read and understood all of the rules - so no excuses. I wish you all the best in your campaigning!

Returning Officer, Tom Newman

What positions are available?

Here is a list of the positions you can stand for and a short job description about what you'll be expected to do if you win, and how you can make a difference. You can read more about all the positions on our website at imperialcollegeunion.org/elections.

- Representatives to Council
- Liberation and Community Networks Committees
- Academic Representatives – Departmental and Year
All Undergraduate Academic Reps are elected online in the Autumn Elections. Postgraduate Academic Reps are subject to department.
- Wellbeing Representatives - Departmental and Year
- Constituent Unions Committees
- Clubs, Societies and Projects Committees

How do I stand?

To enter the election process, you first need to put yourself up for nomination. This is a simple online procedure that involves you logging into the Elections voting website using your College login and then choosing which position you would like to stand for. nominate yourself by going to imperialcollegeunion.org/elections.

Once you have put yourself forward as a candidate, you will be asked for the username of a fellow student to 'second' or support your nomination. Your 'seconder' will receive an email notification and won't need to take any further action if they're happy to support your nomination. Nominations open, Mon 17 October 2022 and close Tuesday 25 October 2022. Once the nomination period closes, there will be a period in which campaigning is not permitted - candidates are encouraged to review this Candidate Pack and other training material.

N.B. If your election is being held offline, please contact your course administrator for further details.

Top Campaign Tips

Campaigning around campus is only allowed after the close of nominations. You must not campaign before then, otherwise you will have an unfair advantage over your rivals. Of course, you are free to tell your friends you are running but you are not allowed to put up posters around campus, hand out flyers, etc.

Here are our top tips for campaign success:

1. Design some eye-catching campaign visuals & logo

Online posts & posters are an essential part of a campaign. There's going to be plenty of them, so make sure yours stand out.

2. Create strong, original policies

This one definitely goes without saying. It's easy to say you're going to completely overhaul the Union, but that's not necessarily possible or even realistic. Think where you can improve something, how you can do it and whether the electorate is going to take the policy seriously.

3. Demonstrate your experience

If you've been a club captain or sat on one of the Union's Committees, promote this to your advantage.

4. Use social media to your advantage

Facebook, Twitter, Instagram or TikTok are great ways of extending your campaign message. Remember to follow the social media rules.

5. Come up with an imaginative slogan

A witty slogan captures people's imagination and sticks in their minds.

6. Get friends to campaign with you, for you

Get your buddies on the campaign trail to speak to as many members of the electorate as possible.

7. Making speeches in lecture theatres

Giving a quick shout-out to a lecture theatre is a daunting prospect, but a deeply rewarding way of canvassing hundreds of voters at once!

8. Talk to people

Take the time to explain your policies to people and why you're the right person for the role. You could replace in person conversations with social media Q&A sessions. Answer their questions thoughtfully and there's a good chance they'll head off to tell their friends to vote for you as well.

9. Be inventive

Aside from the first years, many students will have heard all the usual campaign spiels before. Come up with a unique, original campaign to capture those jaded minds!

Campaigning

The Campaign Process

Campaigning begins Thursday 27 October 2022

No campaigning is permitted before this time. To win an election, you need to run a successful campaign to convince the rest of the student body that you're up to the task.

You need to outline what you think needs changing or improving in the Union and then come up with a campaign strategy that is going to get you and your ideas noticed and taken seriously by the electorate.

One of the most contentious points between candidates during an election can be campaign material. In order for this election to be successful, we have to lay down some ground rules that everyone must follow:

- The election publicity rules are formed from the standard Imperial College Union publicity rules plus additional rules imposed by the Returning Officer.
- All campaign material must be in English only or have an English translation of anything said in a foreign language, the translation being equal or greater in prominence. All campaign material must include the pre-designed Autumn Elections banners available at imperialcollegeunion.org/elections. Other use of the Union or College logo on campaign material is prohibited.
- Spamming is forbidden. No use of email lists (either College or Union) or any mass emailing of any form is allowed. If a candidate, or a member of their campaign team, sends an email and the receiver does not know the sender, then lodges a complaint, the candidate may be penalised and/or disqualified.
- Campaign material must not contain offensive language, contain implied offensive language, or be libelous in nature.
- As not all students will have the same access to campus and physical assets carry a sufficient viral transmission risk it has been decided that no printed campaign materials will be permitted. Students are prohibited from campaigning on campus. If posters are printed for use in video or social media content, posters must be no bigger than A2 in size.
- There must be no publicity in halls of residence.
- You are not allowed to use adhesive stickers as campaign materials.

Please note that these rules are enforceable by the Returning Officer and Deputy Returning Officers.

Spreading your message in student media

All student media is open to candidates to advertise in and spread their campaign message. This will inevitably require you to spend some of your campaign budget to use them (see next section).

If you wish to advertise in any of the different student media, then you should contact them directly at one of the following addresses:

- Felix: felix@imperial.ac.uk
- IC Radio: info@icradio.com
- ICTV: ictv@imperial.ac.uk

Manifestos

Manifestos give you the chance to show and convince the electorate why you are the best candidate for the role. Written versions will be displayed on the Union elections website. Manifestos often say more about a candidate if they are not submitted in time. Any manifestos submitted after the deadline below will not be published at all.

Other Union student media may also use the submitted manifesto text or contact you to submit a further manifesto. Please note, all campaign material is bound by the Student Staff Protocol (SSP).

These regulations are contained within the Code of Practice. In a nutshell, the SSP states that you cannot comment on the performance of a Union staff member or their department if they are the sole member of that department.

Manifestos and your photo must be uploaded to imperialcollegeunion.org/vote by 26 October 2022. There is a 250 word limit for all manifestos.

The Voting System

All voting will be done online. The voting system that the Union uses is the “Single Transferable Vote with Quota System”, sometimes referred to as STV. This enables students to list their preferences for a position, using numbers, with 1 for the first choice, 2 for the second and so on.

The result of this system is that students whose first choice is not elected can still get a chance to state further preferences.

Furthermore it makes it possible that, whilst an individual student may not be the most popular, if they have a larger base of support among the students they typically will be elected.

For every position, voters can choose to ‘re-open nominations’, also known as RON. If you don’t support any of the candidates, you can select RON as one of your preferences. You can also choose to abstain from the election.
