

Beit Venues Catering

Order Guidelines

Ordering catering with Beit Venues couldn't be easier. Have a look at our Catering Menu and pick your favourite option. We understand the unique challenges of organising events so if you need a little help, our dedicated events team will assist you in choosing an appropriate menu for any event you're looking to have and will ensure that all your catering needs are met.

We have designed a few guidelines to make it easier to book catering with us - there are just a few things we'd like you to keep in mind before ordering. For our full terms and conditions please see the Catering Terms & Conditions on the Beit Venues Website (www.beitvenues.org).

- All orders must be made two weeks before the start of your event. Final numbers and dietary requirements should be provided no later than a week before the event.
- Please note that we are a fully nut-free venue, so we will not serve anything containing nuts on the premises.
- All orders should adhere to the minimum portion number stated with each menu.
- All catering will be accompanied by china crockery and steel cutlery where appropriate except our BBQ menu which will be served with disposable plates and cutlery.
