Version 1.2
18 September 2015

Introduction

As the Legal Services Officer I work in the Legal Services Office of the College. I am responsible for compliance with the Freedom of Information Act and I am also the College's Data Protection Officer. Additionally I act as Clerk to student discipline panels.

This year we are electing Year and Course Representatives, the 16 Ordinary Members of Council and the Graduate Students' Union Reps simultaneously.

This is a brilliant way to get involved and be part of ensuring student views are expressed to the right bodies to make changes for the benefit of students.

Whether you want to be involved with representing your Year Group or Master's cohort to your Department, or be one of the 'voice of the students' in Union Council, we hope this guide will help you.

Inside you will find ideas as to what to expect from Imperial College Union elections, as well as some tips and rules regarding campaigning. Please make sure you read it fully.

So whatever position you're running for, I wish you the best of luck!

Jessica Silver

Returning Officer

Union Council Ordinary Members

Union Council is the policy and accountability forum of the Union. It is here to be the legitimate voice of the student body; passing policies that state the Unions stance of issues which may be local, national or international.

Your Officer Trustees bring reports to Council to ensure you know how they are representing you. This also provide an opportunity for you to ask them questions about their work.

If elected as a member of Council you are expected to read these reports and we encourage you to speak to friends and course buddies about issues before coming to the meeting – you will be there to represent them! Any student can attend Council (and they are encouraged to do so), however only an elected member can vote.

You can only stand for one of the positions within your faculty.

The number of positions available varies between Faculty and degree stage as they are allocated proportionally. As such the following number of positions are available:

▲ Faculty of Engineering:

4 x Undergraduate

2 x Postgraduate

▲ Faculty of Natural Sciences:

3 x Undergraduate

2 x Postgraduate

▲ Faculty of Medicine:

3 x Undergraduate

1 x Postgraduate

▲ Non-Faculty (eg. Business School and Humanities):

1 x student registered on courses that are not in a particular faculty

Year or Course Representative

To make sure the academic concerns of all students are heard, the Union facilitates a representation structure which starts with the Year (or Master's Course) Representative and ends with the Union President.

The Year (or Course) Rep works together with the Departmental Representative to find solutions to issues within the course. This can range from providing more printer credits to influencing the course structure.

All Year (or Course) Reps along with the Dep Rep attend meetings with the senior management of the course, known as the Staff-Student Committee.

When issues are too big, or don't get resolved, they can be passed onto the Deputy President (Education) and the Union President, who often find solutions.

The Year (or Course) Rep is genuinely the first and most important cog in the representation system. They can cause the most direct changes in their course, making the student experience better for everyone currently on the course, as well as future students.

If you want to make an impact on your course during your time at Imperial College London, this role is definitely the one for you.

Ethics & Environmental Officer

The Ethics & Environmental Officer is responsible for promoting green and ethical initiatives and issues to all Imperial students. This involves organising conferences, summits and events raising awareness of green issues, liaising with relevant charities and College bodies which includes the organisation of termly Fairtrade steering group meetings. They liaise with green student representatives from Halls as well as the Environmental Society, feeding back ideas for improvement to the building managers of Halls and helping to enact green initiatives with the support of the Deputy President (Welfare).

They also follow up on individual student issues and sit on College and Union committees (Community & Welfare Board and Union Council) developing and proposing new ideas for policy to make Imperial as sustainable as possible.

GSU Committee positions

Deputy President (Operations)

The Deputy President (Operations) shall attend the GSU Executive Committee and other GSU committee meetings as appropriate, be responsible for co-ordinating the operations of the GSU as a whole and be responsible for co-ordinating the work of the Treasurer, Secretary and Events Officer.

Deputy President (Representation)

The Deputy President (Representation) shall attend the GSU Executive Committee and other College and Union meetings as appropriate, be responsible for co-ordinating the representative and welfare functions of the GSU as a whole and be responsible for co-ordinating the work of the Academic & Welfare Officers (AWOs).

Treasurer

The GSU Treasurer shall be responsible to the President for the efficient administration of the finances of the GSU, attend the GSU Executive Committee and other GSU committee meetings as appropriate and deputise for the President at Imperial College Union Committees if absent.

Academic & Welfare Officers x 5

The GSU has five Academic & Welfare Officers (AWOs) representing Business, Engineering, Life Sciences, Medicine and Physical Sciences. The AWO shall attend the GSU Executive Committee meetings as appropriate.

The AWO, supported by the Deputy President (Education), is responsible for representing the students in their Faculty on the level of the Faculty. This means communicating with likes of Course, Section or Department Reps in their Faculty to identify issues affecting a large body of students, and then working with the relevant staff to address them. The AWO may also receive suggestions from the students that they represent, and use those to come up with ways to make the postgraduate learning experience in their Faculty better than before.

The AWO meets with the Deputy President (Education) on a regular, monthly basis. When issues are too big, or don't get resolved, they can be passed onto the Deputy President (Education) who can advise or find solutions. The AWO also gives Faculty-specific advice to the Deputy President (Education) when the latter engages on postgraduate issues on a College level.

Additionally, the AWO has a welfare function within their respective Faculties. This means they work to identify issues which might be affecting the welfare of students within their faculty, they do not offer support for individual issues, but will signpost to relevant services within college.

The AWO is integral to the Union's efforts to improve the postgraduate learning experience at Imperial. They have the opportunity to drive major changes in their Faculty and across the College, making Imperial better for current as well as future students.

Secretary

The Secretary shall attend all meetings of GSU committees, maintain email lists for their committees, receive and report apologies from committee members who cannot attend meetings, ensure all meetings are advertised at least 10 College days in advance, ensure agendas and papers for every meeting are circulated five clear College days before a meeting, minute the meetings of their committees and be responsible for archiving of papers and minutes relating to their committee's business.

How do I stand?

To stand for election you must first nominate yourself by going to imperialcollegeunion.org/elections.

A Year (or Course) Rep does not require any 'seconders' to stand; however Council Ordinary Member Candidates need to acquire one.

Those standing for any of the GSU Academic and Welfare Officer roles will also need to acquire one 'seconder' too.

Once you have put yourself forward as a candidate, you may be asked for the username of a fellow student to second your nomination. Not all positions in these elections require a seconder; you will be notified during the nomination process if one is required. Your seconder will receive an email notification and won't need to take any further action if they're happy to support your nomination.

Campaigning

Campaigning is going out and telling students why they should vote for you. There are many different ways to campaign such as:

- ▲ Posters
- ▲ Leaflets
- ▲ Speaking in lecture theatres
- ▲ Facebook and Twitter
- ▲ Running around in a costume
- ▲ Getting your friends to help you
- ▲ Stickers
- ▲ Billboards and sandwich boards

Your campaign is up to you but make sure you read the rules.

Running a Successful Campaign

Campaigning around campus is only allowed during a short window (see the election timetable for exact dates). You must not campaign before the close of nominations otherwise you will have an unfair advantage over your rivals. Of course, you are free to tell your friends you are running but you are not allowed to stick up posters around campus, hand out fliers etc.

Design some eye-catching posters: posters are an essential part of a campaign. There's going to be plenty of them, so make sure yours stand out.

Create strong, original policies: this one definitely goes without saying. It's easy to say you're going to completely overhaul the Union, but that's not necessarily possible or even realistic. Think where you can improve something, how you can do it and whether the electorate is going to take the policy seriously. Demonstrate your experience: If you've been a club captain or sat on one of the Union's Management Group or Constituent Union committees, promote this to your advantage.

Use social networking and construct a website or blog: Facebook and Twitter are great ways extending your campaign message.

Come up with an imaginative slogan: A witty slogan captures people's imagination and sticks in their mind.

Hand out freebies and use costumes and placards: People might not remember your policies, but they'll remember your face if you give them a free sweet or two, or dress-up as a gorilla.

Get friends to campaign for you: Get your buddies on the campaign trail to speak to as many members of the electorate as possible. Talk to people: Take the time to explain your policies to people and why you're the right person for the role. Answer their questions successfully and there's a good chance they'll head off to tell their friends to vote for you as well.

Be inventive! Aside from the freshers, many people will have heard all the usual campaign spiels before. Come up with a unique, original campaign to capture those jaded minds.

Campaign Material

One of the most contentious points between candidates during an election can be campaign material. In order for this election to be successful, we have to lay down some ground rules that everyone must follow:

- ▲ The election publicity rules are formed from the standard Imperial College Union publicity rules plus additional rules imposed by the Returning Officer.
- ▲ All campaign material must be in English only or have an English translation of anything said in a foreign language, the translation being equal or greater in prominence.
- ▲ Spamming is forbidden. No use of email lists (either College or Union) or any mass emailing of any form is allowed. If a candidate, or a member of their campaign team, sends an email and the receiver does not know the sender who then lodges a complaint, the candidate may be penalised and/or disqualified.
- ▲ All campaign material must not contain offensive language, contain implied offensive language, or be libelous in nature.
- ▲ Campaign material must not be placed over other candidates' material; nor should other candidates' material be removed.
- ▲ Posters must be no bigger than A2 in size.
- ▲ Posters must not be placed on open brickwork and non-designated poster boards.
- ▲ Posters must be at least five metres apart.
- ▲ Posters must be put up using blu-tack or drawing pins (as appropriate) – do not use sticky tape.
- ▲ There must be no publicity in halls of residence unless express permission has been given by the Wardens or Sub-wardens for the posters to be placed in any designated areas.

Social media rules

- ▲ Candidates may create Facebook groups.
- ▲ Candidates are not permitted to use for the purpose of campaigning any Facebook group created for any purpose other than the current election.
- ▲ A Facebook message is governed by the same rules as an email.
- ▲ Any candidate using Twitter must inform the Returning Officer of the Twitter name they will be using. All tweets by candidates and their campaign team must include the hashtag #voteicu.
- ▲ Candidates must invite Imperial College Union Returning Officer (facebook.com/icureturningofficer) to any Facebook groups used for campaigning.

You can only place posters in the following places

- ▲ On Union Building poster boards with the exception of the bar area, the Union Dining Hall, and those covered in glass
- ▲ The Junior Common Room pillars, but not glass, in the Sherfield Building.
- ▲ Stairway noticeboards at St. Mary's, on each floor.
- ▲ Glass notice boards at SAF and in UMO student post room.
- ▲ Reynolds First floor walls and basement walls

Manifestos

Manifestos give you the chance to show and convince the electorate why you are the best candidate for the role. Written versions will be displayed on the Union elections website. Manifestos often say more about a candidate if they are not submitted in time. Any manifestos submitted after the deadlines below will not be published at all. Other Union student media may also use the submitted manifesto text or contact you to submit a further manifesto.

Please note, all campaign material is bound by the Student Staff Protocol (SSP). These regulations are contained within the Code of Practice. In a nutshell, the SSP states that you cannot comment on the performance of a Union Staff member or their department if they are the sole member of that department.

Manifestos and your photo must be uploaded to imperialcollegeunion.org/vote by 12:00 16 October 2015. There is a 250 word limit for all manifestos.

Budget

Ordinary Member and GSU Committee candidates can spend up to £30 on their campaign, whereas Year (or Course) Reps can spend £10. These costs will not be refunded.

You must provide all receipts to the Returning Officer upon request before the results are announced. This is to ensure fairness and to stop people 'buying' the election.

Paper printing of posters (in College departments, at home, etc.) shall be accounted for at the costs below, regardless of where and for how much they were printed. Posters and flyers will be charged at the cost of the size of the distributed media; not the printed size.

Prices for printing are calculated at the College prices:

	A2	A3	A4
Monochrome	12p	6p	3p
Colour	£1	24p	12p

The Voting System

All voting will be done online. The voting system that the Union use is the “Single Transferable Vote with Quota System”, sometimes referred to as STV. This enables students to list their preferences for a position, using numbers, with 1 for the first choice, 2 for the second and so on.

The result of this system is that students whose first choice is not elected can still get a chance to state further preferences.

Furthermore it makes it possible that, whilst an individual student may not be the most popular, if they have a larger base of support among the students they typically will be elected.

RON (Re-Open Nominations) is a candidate in all elections. People vote for RON if they don't support any of the candidates. People can also choose to abstain from an election.
